

TPPPA 2021 Upcoming Training Schedule

Date	Time	Duration	Series	Session Name	Session Description	Speaker	Registration Link	Eligible for AAP & APRR CEC
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Cannabis	Cannabis Update: Banking and Payment Processing for Marijuana Related Businesses	2020 saw numerous states make changes to their laws related to recreational and medical marijuana. However, marijuana still remains illegal at a federal level. The industry has high hopes of seeing the new Congress and the incoming Biden Administration updating federal laws to support marijuana banking and the decriminalization of marijuana. This session will occur 2-3 times over 2021 to ensure that members are updated on the progress of legislation at a state and federal basis.	Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Cannabis Banking & Payments	Hemp Update: Latest Developments in Compliance for Hemp/CBD Products	The 2018 Farm Bill legalized hemp at the federal level, but there has been little guidance offered to banks and payment processors who are interested in working with hemp-related businesses. In this webinar we will discuss some key developments in the cannabis industry, with a focus on guidance that is helpful for Payment Processors interested in working with hemp and/or marijuana-related businesses. TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	The Consumer Protectors	The Consumer Protectors	Consumer Protection laws and regulations are complex and often confusing. Payment processors, of all types, as well as their banks, need to understand the powers and authorities of those agencies that enforce Consumer Protection laws at both a federal and state level. Join the TPPPA and Troutman Sanders as we learn about the powers and authorities granted to the CFPB, the FTC and the States Attorney Generals, and how they frequently partner in their efforts to protect consumers. TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	The Consumer Protectors	Consumer Protection and COVID-19	COVID-19 is rapidly altering the legal and regulatory landscape in which financial services businesses operate. This webinar will discuss some key developments and takeaways for payment processors related to consumer protection in light of COVID-19, focusing on federal guidance and enforcement actions, as well as significant state action. This webinar is brought to you by the TPPPA and will be presented by our partner Troutman Sanders.	Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	The Consumer Protectors	CFPB: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow	The CFPB has evolved considerably since its inception in 2010, and we have experienced a shift in enforcement strategy over the past few years. Much of this shift is related to policy changes due to a shift in administration. In this webinar we will contrast the CFPB under the Obama Administration and the Trump Administration. We will also explore how enforcement objectives might look in the future and how best practices in compliance buffer the impact of shifts in administration. TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	The Consumer Protectors	State Attorneys General: Evolving Concerns, Compliance and Enforcement	State Attorneys General have become more active in their efforts to protect consumers as it relates to banks and payment processors, especially when you take into consideration COVID-19. In this webinar we will discuss some key concerns of State Attorneys General, expectations, and their relationship to federal consumer protection agencies. We will focus on the efforts of the more active State Attorneys General and hopefully provide you with some key takeaways to help you mitigate future risk. TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	The Consumer Protectors	Federal Trade Commission: Evolving Concerns, Compliance and Enforcement	The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has been consistently active in their enforcement efforts related to violations of Consumer Protection laws, rules and regulations over the past few years and have been particularly engaged during the COVID-19 pandemic. The FTC also has a history of holding payment processors accountable for the activities of the merchants for whom they process payments, and has a history of seizing merchant reserves held by payment processors and their bank. In this session we will analyze recent FTC enforcement actions and warning letters issued by the FTC in an effort to understand the FTC's regulatory and enforcement priorities. This session will be presented by our partner Troutman Sanders, and is the next in our series "The Consumer Protectors"	Troutman Pepper	Member Only	Y
