3/22/2023	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Best Practices (CMS)	How to Build Your Unique Risk Assessment	This session will take the concepts we learned in Understanding the Purpose and Function of Risk Assessment and its Relationship to Internal Controls and provide examples of how to utilize these concepts in documenting a risk assessment that aligns with the distinct risks of your organization's payment processing program. We will cover a variety of examples particularly related to Consumer Protection compliance and legal risk for particular products, services and industries.	Marsha Jones President TPPPA	Member Only	Y
4/5/2023	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Best Practices (CMS)	Developing, Testing and Maintaining Internal Controls Framework	In this session we will further expand our work with risk assessments and delve more deeply into internal controls, otherwise known as those things you do to mitigate a particular risk. Creating a risk assessment at the internal control level allows your company to quickly identify which controls are most critical so that you can create a risk-based internal control testing program and schedule. The primary purpose of self-testing internal controls on a regular basis is to provide your company with the opportunity to self-detect and self-correct when controls are inadequate or fail. A properly documented internal control testing program helps to support your company in demonstrating a culture of compliance.	Marsha Jones President TPPPA	Member Only	Y

4/26/2023	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Best Practices (CMS)	Policies and Procedures and Their Functions and How they Differ	In this session we will discover the different functions and purpose of Policies versus Procedures. Policies are directives of the Board that are designed to implement controls to mitigate the risks to the organizations payment processing program. Procedures are the instructions for implementing the board policies at a functional level. Both policies and procedures must be documented, approved by the board (policies) or management (procedures) and must be acknowledged by employees as they are implemented and updated. Employees should be trained on policies and procedures on a regular basis. Changes to policies and procedures must be tracked by version control and copies of previous policies and procedures should be archived for future review. These concepts and more will be explored in this session.	Marsha Jones President TPPPA	https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/53554285507032922	Y

TPPPA 2023 Upcoming Training Meeting Schedule

Date	Time	Duration	Series	Session Name	Session Description	Speaker	Registration Link	Eligible for AAP & APRP CEC
12/21/2023	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	TPPPA Compliance Committee	TPPPA Compliance Committee Meeting - December 2023	The TPPPA Compliance Committee will support the TPPPA's efforts in developing and maintaining industry best practices in payment processing compliance. The Committee will also review changes to rules and regulations that impact electronic payment processing and provide feedback and support in maintaining the TPPPA Compliance Management System.	Marsha Jones President TPPPA	Member Only	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Consumer Protection	The Consumer Protectors	Consumer Protection laws and regulations are complex and often confusing. Payment processors, of all types, as well as their banks, need to understand the powers and authorities of those agencies that enforce Consumer Protection laws at both a federal and state level. Join the TPPPA and Troutman Sanders as we learn about the powers and authorities granted to the CFPB, the FTC and the States Attorney Generals, and how they frequently partner in their efforts to protect consumers.	TPPPA/Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Consumer Protection	CFPB Update	The CFPB has evolved considerably since its inception in 2010, and we have experienced a shift in enforcement strategy over the past few years. Much of this shift is related to policy changes due to a shift in administration. In this webinar we will contrast the CFPB under the Obama Administration and the Trump Administration. We will also explore how enforcement objectives might look in the future and how best practices in compliance buffer the impact of shifts in administration.	TPPPA/Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Consumer Protection	FTC Update	The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has been consistently active in their enforcement efforts related to violations of Consumer Protection laws, rules and regulations over the past few years and have been particularly engaged during the COVID-19 pandemic. The FTC also has a history of holding payment processors accountable for the activities of the merchants for whom they process payments, and has a history of seizing merchant reserves held by payment processors and their bank. In this session we will analyze recent FTC enforcement actions and warning letters issued by the FTC in an effort to understand the FTC's regulatory and enforcement priorities.	TPPPA/Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Consumer Protection	FTC Marketing Practices	In this session we will review guidance related to marketing practices for companies dealing with their consumer customers. The FTC has a significant number of rules and guides that outline the requirements and provide guidance. A significant portion of the enforcement activities and warning letters that the FTC issues are related to marketing practices.	TPPPA/Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Consumer Protection	State Attorneys General: Evolving Concerns, Compliance and Enforcement	State Attorneys General have become more active in their efforts to protect consumers as it relates to banks and payment processors, especially when you take into consideration COVID-19. In this webinar we will discuss some key concerns of State Attorneys General, expectations, and their relationship to federal consumer protection agencies. We will focus on the efforts of the more active State Attorneys General and hopefully provide you with some key takeaways to help you mitigate future risk.	TPPPA/Troutman Pepper	Registration Link to Come	Y
TBD	2:00-3:00 ET	60 mins	Payments	Best Practices in Remotely Created Checks	Nacha has made and continues to make significant and forward thinking changes to the Nacha Operating Rules that will impact banks, payment processors and merchants. In this session we will outline and discuss the changes and how they will impact the various constituents in the ACH Network. This session will be updated and repeated periodically throughout the year to keep members informed and provide opportunities for discussion.	Marsha Jones President TPPPA	Registration Link to Come	Y
